

Tales of Disaster

Children's videos (Indonesian, Achenese, Tetun & English included)

A series of fascinating films that use 'Muppets' to introduce community disaster management. Produced through a collaboration between IDEP, JRS and No Strings, with support from Trocaire. The disk also includes PDF versions of IDEP's CBDM Manual and comic book series.

Some excerpts from the films included on this disk

Flood & Landslide (8 minutes)

Badu has sold his hillside of 'worthless' trees to an illegal logging company.... "When you're rich", he says, tossing his plastic cup and container to the ground, "you don't have to cook, and you don't have to clean up". Badu's rubbish is washed towards an already blocked drain. The water level is rising...

Earthquake (7 minutes)

It's a quiet day in Desa Wanabalu. Badu is stacking high shelves in his shop with heavy boxes - not a good idea in an earthquake zone. The Little Girl is shopping for equipment for her emergency bag- batteries, rice, first aid kit, candles and matches, mineral water, a blanket...

Tsunami (8 minutes)

Badu, a fisherman, has built his house close to the beach and chopped down the trees that would normally protect him from the sea. Suddenly, the ground shakes: an earthquake. The Little Girl moves away from the hut, crouches down and sensibly covers her head with her bucket until it's over. Then, when she looks up, she sees the water leaving the bay and sounds the alarm...

Volcano (6 minutes)

Badu is relaxing after a quiet morning's work in his little town at the foot of the volcano. Today, there is smoke coming from the summit and a rumbling noise is getting louder, but Badu has heard it all before. When the Little Girl approaches with her emergency backpack, marked with its green square and white cross, he tells her the volcano hasn't erupted in centuries. "It's perfectly safe."...

Two Gardens - about peace building (10 minutes)

Badu is not what you'd call a hard worker. Badu doesn't appear to have time to work both of Dodon's gardens, so Dodon brings in Dani to clear and cultivate one of them. Dani is a newcomer to the village who doesn't speak their language well....
